

A Message from the Vice President

Thank you for choosing Detection Engineering Technology, Inc. (DETI) for your Transportation needs. DETI qualified and certified staff with their area of expertise, quality work and on/before project completion time. We can deliver the confidence with a guarantee to the client's satisfaction.

Our mission at DETI is to support our client's confidence, to earn their long term business relationships. By working with DETI, you will enjoy the latest services, technology and developments in the industry. DETI work with Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT) staff to solve and address traffic and transportation problems in our communities. Upon the project completion, we are very confident for a satisfying end results.

As you navigate our website, the information enclosed will help you make the most of our services. As your needs change, we will be happy to accommodate your transportation needs and offer you quality services that will help you achieve your goals.

Sincerely,

Tarek Takieddin

Tarek Takieddin, VP